2 – DESTINATIONS

www.unipd.it/mobility-agreements

Each student regularly enrolled can choose 2 destinations maximum for the programme ERASMUS PLUS/OPEN ARQUS MOBILITY indicating the order of priority: in 1 the student sets the first choice, weather in 2 the second choice. Students can choose 1 destination only for the programme SEMP and 1 destination only for the programme ULISSE. So that the student can compete for 4 destinations maximum: 2 for ERASMUS/ARQUS, 1 for SEMPR e 1 for ULISSE. In each destination it will be generated a merit ranking ordered by the highest score to the lowest score following the rules:

1. If the student wins both destinations in ERASMUS/ARQUS, it will be assigned the destination corresponding to the 1° preference. The student will be automatically excluded in the destination corresponding to the 2° preference;
2. If the student wins one destination in the programme ERASMUS/ARQUS, it will be assigned the destination winned;
3. If the student doesn't win any destination in the programme ERASMUS/ARQUS, he/she will remain in both the ranking waiting for eventually takeovers;
4. If the student wins two or three calls between the programmes ERASMUS/ARQUS, SEMPR, ULISSE it will be possible accepting the calls winned only if there are not temporal overlapping between them.
 - a. i.e. if the student wins the call ERASMUS/ARQUS in the period january-march, the call SEMPR in the period april-july and the call ULISSE in the period september-december, so he/she can accept all the calls.
5. If there are temporal overlapping between the calls, the student will proceed non-accepting or later waive the call where there's the temporal overlapping.
 - a. i.e if the student wins the call ERASMUS/ARQUS in the period january-march and the call SEMPR in the period january-may, he/she will waive one of the two calls.
